Verso 1:
    A                      B
In 1998 you bought a B.C. Rich
            E                         A
You were a master shredder from the jump
A                          B
 Blew them all away with the Ritalin kids
            E                             A
While I was shedding through my stubborn slump

Pré-Refrão:
    F#m7                    B
You had so many chances to become a star
        E/G#                A
But you never really cared about them

Refrão:
C
Local God
G                           Am7
 You'll live forever as a local God
D7/F#                       F
 It's even better than the thing you're not
G

Verso 2:
   A                         B
We signed a record deal at seventeen
 E                    A
Hated by every local band
            A
They say we never paid our dues
        B                     E                    A
But what does that mean when money never changes hands?

Pré-Refrão:
     F#m7          B
It's 2021 and I'm Almost Famous
   E/G#                  A
You never really cared about them

Refrão:

Ponte:
        G         F          C
Are you melting face at the Bellagio?
    G    F    C
oh ohhh woah oh oh oh
         G              F            C
Oh you're teaching little kids how to rock 'n roll
     G    F    C
oh ohhh woah oh oh oh
        Em                        Am
Did you get all weighed down by your heart of gold?
           Em                Am
Cause you really only cared about that

 Em                              Am
Wonder if you had a chance to sell your soul
        Dm7
Did you ever get your money back?
        Ddim
Did you ever kiss the devil?
