

Flowers - Lauren Spencer-Smith

Bm A D

Took me over to your house to meet your

F#m G

family

Introduce me to them, saying that you'd marry me

Bm A D

Then you'd look me in the eye and say

F#m G

it's just a joke

Then you'd kiss me and I'd smile, did you even know?

Bm A D

When you'd say that kinda thing I'd be

F#m G

excited

Got me hoping maybe one day you would mean it

Bm A D

Always thought I'd only make a fool of

F#m G
someone else

Now you've only gone and made me make one of myself

( Bm A D F#m G )

[Refrão]

Bm A D
I guess the flowers aren't just used for
F#m G
big apologies

I guess I should've been more conscious how you spoke to

Bm A D
'Cause when we'd fight you give me space
F#m G
and not communicate

And for a while I thought that's what I should appreciate

Bm A D F#m
Maybe I was holding on to what I thought

G

you were

But when you think too hard eventually it starts to hurt

Bm A D

The version of you in my head now I know

F#m G

wasn't true

N.c

Young people fall for the wrong people guess
my one was you

( Bm A D F#m G )

[Segunda Parte]

Bm A D F#m

I was getting any flight so we could make

G

it work

You'd ignore me, could have told me you were seein' her

Bm A D F#m

Kinda hate myself for justifying your

G

mistakes

Took a minute but I learned that shit the hard way

Bm A D

Who are you to tell me I can't be

F#m G

heartbroken

Babe, you had the chance, the door for you was open

Bm A D

If it's what you need to tell yourself to

F#m G

sleep at night

Pretend I haven't found a man who finally treats me right

[Refrão]

Bm A D

I guess the flowers aren't just used for

F#m G

big apologies

I guess I should've been more conscious how you spoke to me

Bm            A            D

'Cause when we'd fight you give me space

F#m    G

and not communicate

And for a while I thought that's what I should appreciate

Bm    A            D            F#m

Maybe I was holding on to what I thought

G

you were

But when you think too hard eventually it
starts to hurt

Bm            A            D

The version of you in my head now I know

F#m            G

wasn't true

Young people fall for the wrong people, guess
my one was you

( Bm A D F#m G )

[Final]

Bm      A      D

If there's anything I've learned it's you

F#m      G

should watch yourself

If it's hurting you then leave and go and get some help
